ROGER HORCHOW TO KEYNOTE VNA'S VOLUNTEER APPRECIATION CELEBRATION

Roger Horchow, Tony Award winning Broadway producer, best-selling author, and founder of The Horchow Collection, will provide the keynote address at the Visiting Nurse Association's Volunteer Appreciation Celebration to be held April 26, 2007 from noon to 1:30 p.m.

A standing-room-only audience of more than 400 is expected to fill the Tobian Auditorium at Temple Emanu-El on 8500 Hillcrest Road in Dallas to honor the volunteers who assist with VNA's Meals on Wheels, Hospice, and Eldercare programs. More than 3,000 volunteers throughout the year support VNA care to the frail elderly, sick, disabled, and dying.

The theme of VNA's Volunteer Appreciation Celebration is "Volunteers Plant the Seeds of Kindness." The event coincides with National Volunteer Month.

Mr. Horchow recently co-authored with his daughter, Sally Horchow, the bestselling book "The Art of Friendship." He is also a producer of the current hit Broadway show "Curtains" by John Kander, Fred Ebb, and Rupert Holmes, starring David Hyde Pierce, Debra Monk, and Karen Ziemba.

Additional information about VNA's Volunteer Appreciation celebration can be obtained by calling (214) 689-2210.

The important role volunteers play in VNA's Meals on Wheels, Hospice, and Eldercare programs will be recognized at the Volunteer Appreciation Celebration on April 26, 2007.
